IMPORTANT FACTS

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 , to disclose to the insurer every matter which you know or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so, on what terms. You have that same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is common knowledge;
- that the insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of business as an insurer, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Co-Insurance

Section 1 - Specified Events contains a co-insurance clause. This means that we require you to insure for full value. If you do not do so and you are underinsured at the time of loss, we will pay less in the event of a claim. The amount we will pay is in the proportion that the sum insured bears to eighty (80%) per cent of the full value, subject to the specific conditions of the policy.

Insurer

This policy is underwritten one hundred (100%) per cent by certain underwriters at Lloyd's of London. Lloyds is an authorised insurer in Australia within the meaning of that term under the Insurance Act 1973.

In arranging and effecting this Policy, Australis Group (Underwriting) Pty Ltd ABN 80 082 459 372 will be acting under authority given to it by the Insurer. It will be acting as agent of the Insurer not as your agent.

PRIVACY

We are committed to protecting you and your clients' privacy. We only use the personal information you provide to us to quote on and insure your risks. We only provide personal information to our Insurers and reinsurers (and their representatives) and those we appoint to assist us with claims under your policy. We will not trade, rent or sell your information.

If you don't provide us with complete information, we cannot properly quote for your clients' insurance and we cannot insure them. You can check the personal information we hold about you and your clients at any time.

If you provide us with personal information about anyone else, we rely on you to have told them that you will provide their information to us, to whom we may provide it, the purposes for which we will use it and that they can access it. If the information is sensitive, we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters.
