For the purpose of this application the term we / our / us means Australis Care and /or Australis Group (Underwriting) Pty Ltd and/or the Insurer.

The Professional Indemnity and/or Directors and Officers Liability Policy is issued on a Claim Made Basis:

This means that these sections of the policy respond to: -

1. Claims first made against the Insured during the Period of Insurance and notified to the Insurer during that Period of Insurance, provided that the Insured was not aware prior to the policy inception of circumstances which would have put a reasonable person on notice that a Claim may be made against the Insured, and
2. If during the currency of the policy, the Insured becomes aware of any occurrence which may give rise to a Claim under the policy and during the Period of Insurance gives written notice to the Insurer of such occurrence, any Claim which may be subsequently made arising out of the occurrence of which notification has been given shall be deemed to be a Claim made during the period of this policy whenever such Claim may be made.

When the policy expires, no new claims can be made on the policy even though the event giving rise to the Claim may have occurred during the Period of Insurance.

No indemnity will be provided under this policy in respect of any Claim arising out of circumstances of which the Insured was aware at any time prior to inception and which would have put a reasonable person on notice that a Claim may be made.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before entering into a contract of general insurance you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act, to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matters:

- that diminish the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
- that is common knowledge;
- that your Insurer knows or in the ordinary course of their business ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the Insurer.

You should note your duty continues after the application form has been completed until the policy is entered into, that is until the date the insurer receives instruction to bind cover.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from the beginning. It is therefore vital that you enquire of all entities comprising the insured, including senior staff, before completing the application form and before you sign any declaration confirming the accuracy of in the information disclosed

Surrender or Waiver of Any Right of Contribution or Indemnity

Where another person or company would be liable to compensate the insured or hold the Insured harmless for part or all of any Loss or damage covered by the policy, but the Insured has agreed with that person or company either before or after the inception of the policy that recovery of any Loss or damage from that person or company would not be sought, the Insured will not be covered under this policy for any such Loss or damage.

Contracts by Insured Affecting Rights to Subrogation

If the proposed contract of insurance includes a provision which excludes or limits the Insurer's liability in respect of any loss because the Insured is a party to an agreement which excludes or limits rights to recover damages from a third party in respect of that Loss, signature of any such agreement may place the indemnity under the proposed contract of insurance at risk.

Continuity of Coverage

With respect to any Claims Made Policy (ies) for which you are seeking renewal the policy offers continuity of coverage that means the Insurer shall, notwithstanding the exclusion in respect of prior or pending claims or actions made against you or circumstances or facts known by you which have the potential to give rise to a claim the policy/ (ies) may still respond.

Special terms and conditions apply and these can be found in the respective policy wording.

Retroactive Coverage

With respect to any Claims Made Policy (ies) for which you are seeking renewal the policy has a retroactive date.

Where a date is noted in the schedule then the policy does not cover any claim arising from an actual or alleged act, error, omission or conduct occurring prior to such retroactive date.
